

CHAPTER 1

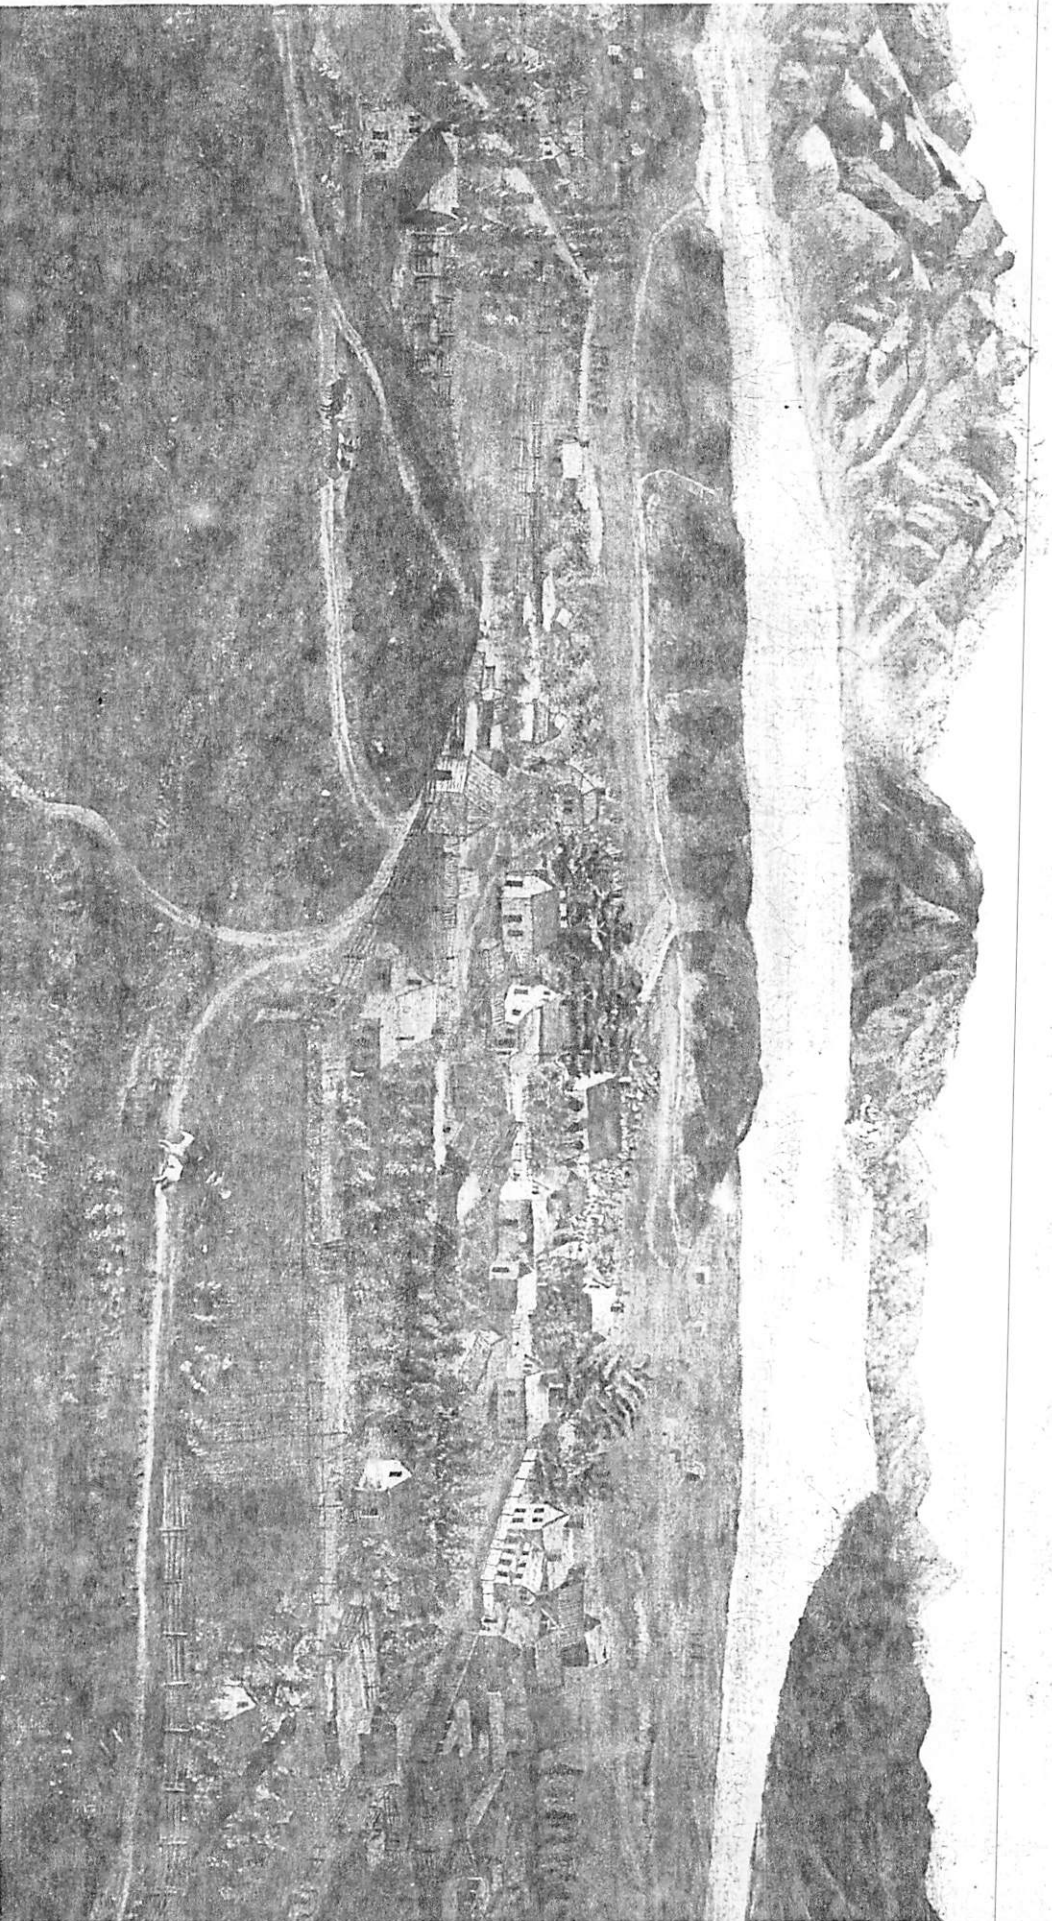

AN OVERVIEW OF ALPINE'S HISTORY, 1850-1980

Alpine City, Utah County, Utah
formerly known as:

Upper Dry Creek, Lone City, Mountainville

Aerial photo of the upper end of Utah Valley showing Alpine and the surrounding farmland with American Fork Canyon and Mt. Timpanogas to the southeast.

This painting by Samuel Brown from a vantage point on top of Cemetery Hill shows how the original road toward the northeast end of town wound around the west side of the old school hill (now gone) and then up over the top of the cemetery. Main Street can be seen on the right hand side of the painting and 200 East is on the left. Utah Lake can be seen in the distance.
